About the Show

Winner of the 2015 Tony Award for Best Musical, Fun Home follows a cartoonist revisiting her childhood to unpack her complex relationship with her father, her emerging sexuality, and the truths we tell-and hide-about ourselves.

Roles Available

ALISON - 43

Lesbian cartoonist; narrator

- Vocal Range: E3-D5
- A self-aware adult reflecting on her life and relationship with her father prior to his tragic death. Must be a strong singer able to move seamlessly between speech and song; low E to light belt C#.

MEDIUM ALISON - 19

College freshman at Oberlin

- Vocal Range: G3-E5
- Highly intelligent, well-read, and socially awkward as she discovers her sexuality. Strong mix-belt to C and mix to E required.

BRUCE BECHDEL - Alison's father

High school English teacher and funeral home director

- Vocal Range: A2-G4
- A complex man marked by repression and volatility; capable of warmth but quick to anger. Strong singing actor required.

HELEN BECHDEL - Alison's mother

- Vocal Range: A3-E5
- Frustrated and emotionally exhausted by her marriage; has spent years trying to be a devoted wife and mother while ignoring her husband's behaviour. Strong mixed E required.

JOAN - College student

- Vocal Range: G3-G4
- Confident, self-assured, with a dry sense of humour; openly identifies as a lesbian. Must be comfortable with harmony singing and alto lines.

ROY / MARK / PETE / BOBBY JEREMY - Played by one actor

- Vocal Range: G3-A4 (optional D#5)
- Multiple roles including a yard worker, mourner, high school student, and the lead singer of a band in Alison's imagination. Requires a strong, clean 1970s pop sound (to B).
